THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE (ESTABLISHED 1877.)

PUBLISHED WEEKLY. ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

MISTERRY, SHOPPELL & ANDREWS, Proprietors TO AT MASHINGTON POSTORPICS AS SECOND CLASS NATTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., DEC, 26, 1901

omee: 339 Pennsylvania Avenue N. W.

Tarrer will be five eclinses next year aspirants, will be visible in this country.

unlimited condemnation-we might even here been ruined professionally." But is allowed to endanger the return of Capt. J. B. Foraker to the Senate. The Nation cannot afford to lose him from the Senate, and certainly the State of Ohio can not. He has won a commanding position there a publicist, and by intimate acquaintance Surveyor-General of Pennsylvania in 1871, with National affairs. He is a largebrained, large-hearted man whose place in the Government cannot be readily filled. Ohio has never been better represented in the Senate than she is by him, and he should be kept there by all means

THE MANAGERS of the Panama Canal have again demonstrated how dangerous it is to be too smart. They have also shown how impossible it is for anybody across the Atlantic to understand the American nonple. They were convinced that we were not so in earnest about building the canal that they, with the assistance of the Pacific Railroads, could not head off any pracfical movement. So, though they knew that the boilding of the Nicitagua Canal menut absolute rain to their investment. they stood off very haughtily from any consideration of the sale of their property. For a while they paid no more attention to the Republic, and later became the author of the Polect than if it had been a canal in of the Blue Book, containing the Rules of the Rules they stood off very haughtily from any conseized them, as well it might. A meeting of the stockholders was at once held, which deposed the managers and appointed the order, and is the acknowledged authority on everything pertaining to the laws of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

The ties that bind the two organizations with the United States, with instructions to get into committee on Rules and Regulations.

No better selection could have possibly the property. They will have to hardle, to get in ahead of the Morgan and hardle, to get in ahead of the Morgan and Laws the involved the managers and appoint of the Order, and is the acknowledged authority on everything pertaining to the laws of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

No better selection could have possibly the name of the Chairmanship of this field, in hospital and in prison pen. In the case, which the Deacon turned on the dearest that bind the two organizations of the green and point.

The ties that bind the two organizations of the green and point of the Order, and is the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

No better selection could have possibly the name of the United States of the United States of the property. They will have to have the made for the Chairmanship of this field, in hospital and in prison pen. In the correct of the green and the memories of the present and the memories of the United States of th and there do not seem to be many mourn-It is said that Secretary Hay will go as soon as he has finished up the Ishmian Treaty, and Secretary Long as soon as he has finished up the Ishmian Treaty, and Secretary Long as soon as he bast five younded in the battles of Pea Ridge gave us safety in the past. Your deeds shall ever be our inspiration. You are shall ever be our instructions to the world. The past of the General Formula of the Completing your instructions to the world. The past of the General Formula of the Ge High-ook had dewned Richard Kerens, but now the rumors revive that he will leave. All these are called "voluntary retirements," but it is certain that there are degrees of voluntariness about them, and squally certain Smith and Garge had desire to be relieved of public duties active desire to the relieved of public duties of a surprise to most of their desire to most of the steady of the surprise to most of their feiends. After Assistant Secretary Day's date for Commander in Chief. He is a land of the steady of the Department to President McKinley's sat- courage. isfaction, and the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty | Gen. James R. Carnahan enlisted in the President Roosevelt any better than he did President McKinley, and that he will to devote himself to literature

The selection of Henry C. Payne for Mark held important staff positions. Postmaster General looks as if the Presi-law and was admitted to the bar. He held with us that we scarcely appreciate them our equable climate and rain. The terrible heat of the past Sum- Knights of Pythias, a fraternal Order with fort, but aroused our sympathy for those who had to endure it. Drouth and arid wastes we cannot complain of. have attempted to till the earth it has yielded many fold, and those who have 1891. ried it are satisfied that greater things

The mineral wealth of Alaska is more promising today than in the past. It is ere, and when obtained will represent tive disturbances of the atmosphere, earth iugs, our thoughts will be tempered by the calamity which overwhelmed so many tom nucl the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, John G, Brady, Governor of the District of Alasks, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 28th ks, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 28th day of November, 1901, as a day of solday of November, 1901, as a day of November, 1901, as a day of solday of November, 1901, as a day of solday of November, 1901, as a day of solday of November, 1901, as a day of November of Nove emn and public thanksgiving to God for ist blessings and of supplication for His attituded kindness and care over us as a District and a Nation. "On the day designated let us assemble elected Jamos vice Commands and the second with grateful praise and thanksgiving confess our responsibility to God, the Creator of all, and forget not to share our 1890, and can speak certainly as to its plenty with the poor, to comfort the sick, cases the unfortunate and manifest char-considerable time in selecting the G. A. R. the President, and the public at large.

MITTEE.

National Pension Committee, but the time

Ry the order of the National Engange list of the members will indicated Col. Robert B. Beath, of Pennsylvania. Commander-in-Chief, to be examined and chairman. Gen. John C. Black, of Illinois. Gen. Jas. R. Carnahan, of Indiana. Ex-Gov. W. H. Upham, of Wisconsin.

Comrade Charles G. Berten, of Mis-

Capt. Henry E. Talutor, of Connecticut.

Hampshire.

All these comrades are very well-known but only one, beside those of Presidential in the Grand Army of the Republic, and their mere names will carry confidence to was wounded at the second Bull Run. He try, and here been ruined professionally." But passed his examination and received a jects of our patriotic Order are similar to strictors, as they've been doing. Poor fel they don't say a word about any offset commission as Captain of Co. A. 6th U. S. from the valuable advertising they received.

C. T., a regiment which stands near the principles on which it is founded recombined from the principles on which it is founded recombined from the valuable advertising from the valuable advertising they received.

C. T., a regiment which stands near the principles on which it is founded recombined from the valuable advertising from the valuable advertising they received. lead of the list of colored troops for hard fighting and heavy losses in battle. In Minde country if the faction light in Ohio is allowed to endanger the return of Capt. killed, 160 wounded, and eight missing, jects are he was so badly wounded as to necessitate the amoutation of his right leg below the knee. He was promoted to Lieutenant-Colonel of the regiment. He was elected and served three years. He then entered the insurance business, and connecting disabled comrades, and the widows and to the aisle, and settling down in that position. "If it was Summer time I ance Company, one of the oldest and most ness men of Philadelphia.

He has always been a most zealous G. A. R. man. He became a charter member of Pest 2, of Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1866, eration of great assistance to us. A. R. man. He became a charter member of Pest 2, of Philadelphia, Oct. 28, 1866, and then charter member of and first Commander of Post 5, Philadelphia. He was the first Junior Vice-Commander of the Department of Pennsylvania, was four years.

Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department of Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department of Pennsylvania, was four years.

Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department of Pennsylvania, was four years.

The sons, not less than 18 years of age, build cars."

He began to snore, however, as soon as his head lay on the overcost.

A party of drunken revelers entered the car at the next station. They had come Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department: was Department Commander in 1873; two years Inspector-General, G. A. R.; and three years Adjutant-General, He Mars. Then they came in and offered to and Regulations which govern the Order, a "Military Rank," to which our members hilarity. sell for $100,000,000. When the report of the Isthmian Commission was made, History of the Grand Army of the Rough.

A Minutary Rank, to which our members matrix.

A Minutary Rank, to which our members matrix.

Still later he became the author of the may belong, and in which military drill "See that old hayseed snoozing there and uniform are prominent features. Nor and snoring like a saw-mill," said the of the Isthmian Commission was neade, and it was found that we did not want their old canal at any price, consternation way. He is present at every National Enciation for such Camps as desire to saloun-keeper, and call around country spect. "Hear him ringing off the boards keized them, as well it might. A meeting campment, and is the acknowledged auth. The ti-not regarded as much of a Republican, or of special strength to the Administration. It is said that Secretary Hay will go as for good soldiership to Major, it is said that Secretary Hay will go as for good soldiership to Major, it is said that Secretary Hay will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major, give you the promise for the future as you will go as for good soldiership to Major.

was a had black eye to the Administration. 11th Ind. for the first three months' serv-It is believed that Mr. Hay is not suiting ice, and on being discharged was given a commission in the 86th Ind., in which he became a Captain, and at times command soon "want relief from the cares of office, ed the regiment. Toward the close of the

At the conclusion of the war he studied several public positions and was finally eral, Judge Advocate General, etc., and a positive, helpful force for the Grand they shouted, and gave three cheers for has been for many years one of the leaders. Army, Now and henceforward is the time has been for many years one of the leaders Army. Now and henceforward is the time our com- a membership of about 500,000. Ex-Gov. W. H. Upham, of Wisconsin.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its served in the 27th Ohio, and has always been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its served in the 27th Ohio, and has always been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

"The sen has not falled to yield of its been a zealous G. A. R. man. He served bandsomely rewarded for their toll.

has long been regarded as one of the fore- ble to join it. Let him make a point of and lay down again, with his feet on the most lawyers of his State. He enlisted in attending the Camp meetings, and of arm next the aisle. He was again al-Co. A, 1st Conn. H. A., and was promoted showing interest in the proceedings. the estematy which overwhelmed so many people on the steamship Islander, and by to Sergeant, Sergeant-Major, and Second the steamship Islander, and by Lieutenaut. He has been an active G. A. triotic organization in this country— as near of the death of President McKinley.

R. man since March, 1807, was Commuch need, perhaps, as at any time since much need, perhaps, as at any time since and then consulted about the Deacon. mander of the Department of Connecticut, the war. There is no telling what mo- and then consulted about the Deacon.

man since 1874. He has held all the offices leave to the country is the Sons of Vet-A. R., was its Commander two terms, and On the day designated let us assemble elected Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief in Let him do it with a will. cured the passage of the Act of June 27, cycle in the French army that 20 new 1890, and can speak certainly as to its companies of bicyclists were formed last intent and purport.

THE G.A.B. NATIONAL PENSION COM- is an unusually strong one throughout, and will command respect and attention, not Commander in Chief Terrance has taken only in the G. A. R., but from Congress, has been well employed, as the following ment at Cleveland, all the matters refer ring to pensions were referred to it and the reported to the President. We may confidently expect the Committee to take such action as will give complete satisfaction to the comrades and to the people.

HELP THE SONS OF VETERANS.

The Commander-in-Chief of the Sons

try, and whose deeds and sacrifices give to us the honorable title we bear. The ob-

To keep green the memory of the services and sacrifices of our fathers, especially those who gave their lives that membership and influence all over the about when he made man, but if He ever land. In doing so your commendation will intended him to ride in the cars at night, hustle, to get in ahead of the Morgan and Higher Schools and the Morgan and Higher Schools and Higher H ssistance and information necessary for presents for his family."

"Say, he's never seen any real thoroughbreds like us." chimed in the youngest of the up-building of the Sons of Veterans.

Much depends upon your action.
Yours, in F. C. and L.,
E. R. CAMPBELL,

Commander-in-Chief. design as been represented.

Gov. John G. Brady, of the District and administered his office with signal ability.

Alaska, through his Secretary, our old like with signal ability.

Alaska, through his Secretary our old like with signal ability.

He was an original G. A. R. man, and was elected by the commander in 1882, and had stopped.

He was an original G. A. R. man, and the commander in 1882, and had stopped.

He was an original G. A. R. man, and the configuration, which we feel that the confrades would like to read:

"The day for our Thanksgiving Festival fast approaching. We in Alaska, in the very unusual honor of a unanimous reliance of the greatest possible strength, and all notins in White Man's Country, and stopped.

"I'll tell you what we'll do," said the He steened forward, and ponced the He steened forward, and ponced the He steened forward, and ponced the He steened forward, and stopped.

"Well, bedad, 'r'e better at guessing the He steened forward, and stopped.

"Well, bedad, 'r'e better at guessing the He steened forward, and stopped.

"Well, bedad, 'r'e better at guessing the He steened forward, and stopped.

"Well, -sometimes Supreme Chancellor-of the when we need all the friends we can get.

Commander-in-Chief Campbell tells, in a plain, straightforward way, how we can be helpful to the Sons of Veterans. His was a soldier of fine record; was Governor circular is excellent in manner and spirit.

Where a deink, 'Squire, and voy'll sless that the control of the con sa abandance of grass, and where men of Wisconsin, and the Commander of the He is an carnest, zealous, practical man, sounder have attempted to till the earth it has Department of Wisconsin, G. A. R., in who means what he says, and is laboring a flask. Separtment of Wisconsin, G. A. R., in Separtment of Wisconsin, G. A. R tive in Congress from Missouri, and Circuit Judge. He was Company of the can praise its usefulness, speak "vou'll oblige me by letting me alone. man effort.

"We have not been visited by destruc"We have not been visited by destruc"We first physics of the atmosphere earth

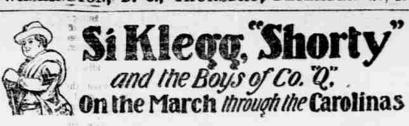

"Cant Henry F. Triptor of Connection."

"The standard of the highly of its membership, and the material from which it is recruited, and urge his with that he changed his carpet-hag Capt. Henry E. Taintor, of Connecticut, own sons and all young men who are eligi- and overcoat to the other end of the seat,

G. A. R., in 1887, and has served very acceptably as Judge-Advocate General.

The war. There is no tening war in the second war in the need may be urgent. The Sons of Veterans furnish incomparably the best who's afraid of us," said the leader, "We scared him nearly to death.

THEY are so well pleased with the bi-

Copyrighted, 1800, by the publishers of The NATIONAL TRIBUSE.

Incidents of the Descon's Journeying as Far him, "Your turn to play, Don't delay the game, What d'ye bet?"

The Descon had instinctly clutched the Capt. Henry E. Tahator, of Connecticut.

The Commander in Chief of the Sons
Commande John C. Linchan, of New of Veterans has sent out the following cars, and the Dencon had a prospect of a He awoke, and booked in a dazed way at appeal to the Grand Army of the Re-Public:

Headquarters, Commandery-in-Chief, S. Car, and began stowing his belongings V., U. S. A.,

Rooms 301, 302 Common Building,
Washington, D. C., Nov. —, 1901.

Not being a nea, it aim't a boss place he was too to say and steep to was the wast of the Washington to buy them. But I shouldn't grumble at anything. This car's around, preparatory to making himself as "please go away and let me alone. I'm alone that's comfortable as he could. He crowded the hoop-skirts in the rack above, hung his any of you, and don't want to. You seem They've probably thought themselves the life of the Nation might be preserved;

To gid the Grand Army of the Republic and all honorably discharged Union soldiers, sailors and marines in carring for disabled converted and overcoat to the end next rphans of the heroic dead;
To inculcate patriotism and love of might stick my feet out of the window, but this is not the weather to expose any substantial in the country, rose through the various grades until he became its President, and is among the leading business men of Philadelphia.

Country:

And to properly observe Memorial Day thing delicate to the frost. (The Deacon wore about No. 11.) I don't know what Having an abiding faith in these principles and objects, we seek to extend our Lord undoubtedly knew what he was R.; and three years Adjutant General. He was elected Commander in Chief at Denver, July 25, 1883. He compiled the first three great principles of Friendship, Charity and Loyalty.

Gen, John C. Black is a veteran of brilteday were the boys of yesterday. We fortable for a Methodist preacher, and death. First lot o' real thoroughbreds he cos in Washington, at least, where he is hant military and civil record. He went not regarded as much of a Republican, or out as a private in the 11th Ind., then our flag, and enjoy the fruits of your valor.

It day were the boys of yesterday. We form the first lot o real thorough thank you that we have our country and our flag, and enjoy the fruits of your valor. "How he did beg off," said to our flag, and enjoy the fruits of your valor. "How he did beg off," said to our flag, and enjoy the fruits of your valor."

refereds. After Assistant Secretary Day's date for Commander in Chief. He is a sion Commander in your Department both findianapolis to see the wonderful big city, reference the hings did not go on in the State fine orator, and a man of convictions and of whom will be pleased to give you any and he's taking back some New Year's mander-in-Chief is a son of a veteran, and the lot, a man with a receding chin, a the Commander-in-Chief of the Sons of high hat and a plaid shawl, a weakling Veterans is a veteran. Who was affecting the society of the Can two patriotic organizations be more toughs, and wasting his days and his money with them. "It'd do the old fellow good te know some real out-and-outers, smoking, and twined it in the Deacon's subdued voice, as the reality of the situation."

Various tricks were suggested, and in There should be an immediate and en- the meanwhile the train ran on to a switch sev, and the American Knights, while "When this wicked war is over, No —— niguers need apply."

The Deacon's mouth closed with a snap.

was a soldier of fine record; was Governor of the of Wisconsin, and the Commander of the He is an earnest, zealous, practical man, sounder," said the leader, tendering him

Comrade John C. Linchan served in the basis upon which to build up such an or- served him nearly to death," asserted the man with the tow-wise beard. This brilliancy called for another drink, and more cheers for Vallandigham.

"We can't let him off this way." said the leader, pulling out a pack of cards. ntent and purport.

It will be thus seen that the Committee of tacks to the German army.

He dealt a hand around to each, and stuck one in the Deacon's hand. one in the Deacon's hand.
"Wake up, stranger," he called, shaking awakened, "what's in those condemned things? They're more mischievous than net crow. Wish I had waited till I got ns if they were the most repulsive filth, "Dornix" struck up.

"We ain't going to let him off this way," id the leader. "We must do something and breast.

Then the leader pulled from his pocket a conv of the "Police Gazette," with a lady dressed mainly in stockings occupying the first page. This he fastened un on the window, in such a way as to make in the pleaser's admiring face back to Indianapolis, and lay me back to the Decayer's admiring face back to Indianapolis, and lay me back to Indianapolis and lay me back to Indianapolis and lay me back to Indianapolis.

low good to know some real out-and-outers.

He's probably never seen one. It'll give him a good, big hog-drover's over here, and help me out. If you'll him something to talk about when he gets home.'

gets home.'

gets home.'

gets home.'

gets home.'

"Let's give him a good, big hog-drover's over here, and help me out. If you'll promise not to say a word about it. I'll give drink, boys," said the lender, pouring into give you four bits."

"How'd yez know me name was Pat?"

at a gallon.

One of his large fists caught the leader under the law, and wiled him un across under the law. The young man with the back of a seat. The young man with the back of a seat. the ovil face went down in the aisle with Deacon, touched by this conjugal devotion, the evil face went down in the aisle with a broken nose, from a backward sweep of the Deacon's left arm. The man with the tow-wise beard received the next attention of the Deacon's right, and went collars. The man with the crooked, nose had that organ still further malformed that it was long past daylight before it to be town the Deacon's left, and Dornix, lurner cached. Union City, and the complete that it was long past daylight before it. had that organ still further malformed that it was long past daying before it from the Deacon's left, and Dornix, lurn-reached Union City, and the conductor ing to flee, was caught by the tee of the was innontient to go ahead, and make up Deacon's No 11, and sout sorawling over time. The Deacon was very hungry, and by the stove. After hitting main every rushed with the rest to the eating-house, one that showed signs of life, the Deacon While waiting for his order of coffee and nicked up the dirty queens and jammed beans, he noticed some of the proprietor's control of the proprietor's propriet of the proprietor's p ning in with coupling-oins in their hands, not eaten half enough, when the impatient "O, yes, you're on band now You're conductor shouted "All aboard," and the cd John E. Evans, Co. L. Ist Wis Cav., here now," raged the Deacon. "Why aint whistic sounded imperatively. He swalto altending to your basiness and pro-lowed his coffee at a gulp, sent a big 1809, Wisconsin elected Gen. Henry Ham-tering your bassengers from insults by monthful of beans after it, and threw a low the first Captain of Co. 1 by Wis-attending the Camp meetings, and showing interest in the proceedings.

The crowd took another drink all around, "Dornix' sang a ribald parody on triotic organization in this country— as triotic organization in this country— as the "Battle Cry of Freedom," they related to the conductor, study and the conductor, study ing the scene, "we don't think we could a contingency, for he made no effort to around, "Dornix' sang a ribald parody on the "Battle Cry of Freedom," they related to the conductor, study ing the scene, "we don't think we could a contingency, for he made no effort to around, "Dornix' sang a ribald parody on the "Battle Cry of Freedom," they related to the conductor, study ing the scene, "we don't think we could a contingency, for he made no effort to have improved on this. For an amateur, it is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is about the conductor, study ing the scene, "we don't think we could a contingency, for he made no effort to have improved on this. For an amateur, it is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is about the conductor, study ing the scene. "Why, sir," said the conductor, study ing the scene, "we don't think we could a contingency, for he made no effort to have improved on this. For an amateur, it is about the best 30b I ever saw done. The conductor is a strong provided the conductor is a contingency. The conductor is a contingency in the conductor is a contingen McKiniev's doctors think that Congress should pay them an immense fee because "we took a tremendous responsibility, because we took in our hands the life of the most personneal man in the world; and we feel that in taking such a responsibility, we fan an immense risk. Had the astrophys placed at the end of this external seed that in taking such a responsibility, we fan an immense risk. Had the astrophys placed at the end of this extending the Order of the Souns as a section and we feel that in taking such a responsibility, we fan an immense risk. Had the astrophys placed at the corner of a stake-and-right form. To that end we desire that you will patronize our meetings, enjoy our astrophys thought the risk that in taking such a responsibility, we fan an immense risk. Had the astrophys placed at the end of this extending the Order of the Souns as a Sergeant. He immediately re-enlists of the most personneal man in the world; we fan an immense risk. Had the astrophys placed at the end of this extending the Order of the Souns as a Sergeant. He immediately re-enlists of the second Eight and Collection of the sound of Veterans. To that end we desire that you will patronize our meetings, enjoy our that set of the Sound and the boys had so good a place to sleep. Don't have to bed down with the musk-

To Jucob Bakhouse, Union City, Ind.:

"Bornix" struct up.

"And I'll lay five dollars down—
"The lay five dollars down.

"And leave 'cm in my will"—
The situation seemed to call for another drink all around.

"Gentlemen," said the Deacon, with hoops, releasing them for more effective forced calmness, and equally forced politeness. "I must again beg you to go away and leave me alone. I'm an old man, and a very tired one, and I want nothing so cars should catch fire I should be roasted much as to be allowed to sleep in peace."

the paper around them broke, and he became than broke, and he became entangled in the meshes of steel. The lamps in the car had gone out, and he was in total darkness. It estrugged wildly to free himself, but with only the result of breaking the strings around the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservation of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the united States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the preservice of the United States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the united States, as a testimonial of his services in the war for the united States, as a testimonial of his services in the united States, as a testimonial of his services in the u ugh directly to call for help." Then he heard the conductor angrity in-Here, whats the matter with these inness, that they're all out?"

"Old way o' that snoozer back there at Indianapolis," answered the brakeman.

"Go forward," said the conductor, and get one of the lamps out of the car ahead.
"Til report this fellow."
The brakeman, coming in with a brilliant lamp, saw the Deacon, sitting patiently on the seat, waiting for the rescue, seed as lamp in a mazement:

"Sec. 5. That every person who shall trained to be a seed and frauduleally wear, display or the lamp in a mazement:

it appear that the Deacon's admiring face hands on that lazy oudmahoon (what 'tinds it appear that the Deacon's admiring face and say our and that the say was turned upon her, even as he slent, the lamps, "Say, Pat," said the Deacon, in a very "Then the wit took the lamp story he was "Say, Pat," said the Deacon, in a very tion dawned on him, "bring your lamp as h. "Let's give him a good, hig hog-drover's over here, and help me out. If you'll them into the leader's mouth.

The conductor and brakeman came runone up, and put it in his pocket. He had dollar-bill to the cunning little proprietor, given it to him betwixt the ribs," said the out the business card and looked it over, man with the cril countenance. "He so as to fix the man's name in his mind, caught me just as I was reaching for it." The train stopped at the next station,

"You can't always tell a thoroughbred sport by his looks," murmured "Dornix" upt the light of disenchantment of his associates breaking upon him. "Never dreamed that no man could do up Bilge grams at no wherever he goes, and always. Thomas that sudden and easy," sends them collect. There's hardly a day
The Deacon cooled down presently and lately that I haven't had to pay 25 or 50 esumed his struggle to make a four-foot cents on some message that he might as seat a comfortable bed for a six-foot man well have written."

who was not so flexible as he had been 30 "Gives me an idea." said the Deacon. who was not so flexible as he had been 30 years previous.

"Piague take it," said he, restoring the hoop-skirts to the rack, from which they had persisted in falling every little while, and had been restored every time he was mouth, and carefully wrote:

"Plague O."

"Jacob Bakhause, Union City, Ind.:
"I think $1 is a terrible price for beans, "JOSIAH KLEGG."

"Say, Pat," he called to the brakeman

"St. Paris, O. Jacob Bakhouse, Union City. Ind.: "I still think $1 a terrible price for

"JOSIAN KLEGG." The brakeman grinned still wider, as he read the telegram, and showed the Dea-An hour later the Deacon telegraphed: "Urbana, O.

"I am unchanged in opinion. A dollar is a terrible price for beans, "Josian Klego." Another hour passed, and the Deacou

"Milford Center, O. "To Jacob Bakhouse, Union City, Ind.:
"No change in belief that $1 is a terrilde price for beans.

"JOSIAH KLEGG." When he changed cars at Columbus, the Deacon went to the operator's window and "Columbus, O.

To Jacob Bakhouse, Union City, Ind. "Nothing can change my belief that $1 is a terrible price for burnt beans, "Jostan Kleog." "There," said the Deacon, satisfiedly, "I think that I'm a little more than even with him, if they've collected a quarter apiece on each one of them messages. But

I may send him some word later on."

And he turned his attention to getting his things stowed in the car for Wheeling. (To be continued.) A GOVERNMENT BADGE FOR THE VET-ERANS.

Senator Burrows, of Michigan, has introduced the following bill, which was read twice, and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. It will receive widespread commendation, and should be at once enacted:

A bill to provide for presenting a badge or button to each honorably discharged soldier, sailor and marine of the war for the preservation of the Union, and for protecting the same by law.

and the hoop-skirts had fallen one by our, upon his upturned face. As he sprang up the paper around them broke, and he becket the paper around the meshes of steel, anno Domini 1865, shall be entitled to hadron or button from the Government.

He picked up his carpet bag and overoat, and changed them back to the inside end of the seat, lay down again, with his head next the aisle, and went to sleep.

The glee of the crowd over their feat

The glee o It'll be time help."

It'll be time badge or button, and the identity of the applicant. But the records of the War Department and the Navy Department of the United States shall in all cases be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in regard to the service of the ap-

Sec. 4. That every person who shall "He niver knows that he haint filled his counterfeit any badge or button adopted and issued under the provisions of this acr shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1000 or by imprisonment not mark that $1000 or by imprisonment not mark that $1000 or by imprisonment not be a simple support that $1000 or by imprisonment not the state of the state of > badge or button adopted and issued un' der the provisions of this act, but which badge or button was awarded and issued shall be punished by a fine of p than $500 or by imprisonment not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the

Sec. 6. That for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act the sum of $25,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise

ENDING THE SCHLEY CASE.

"He doubtless takes his nios on the sly, inquired the brakeman, coming up with the sout and make his toe-calls cuel."

"I just guessed it."

Schley's friends can manage to get a Congressional investigation, which is very un-

EDITOR NATIONAL TRIBUNE: I noticed n the issue of Dec. 12 the claim made by J. R. Lansbury that the 39th Ind. is the only regiment that has ever had two of its members Department Commanders during the same year.

In May, 1899, Nebraska G. A. R. sleetden, the first Captain of Co. L. 1st Wis

What more do you expect us to do? Take below that more do you expect us to do? Take below out and bury 'em?'

"Who'd 'a thought that John C. Heenan "In a minute," answered the keeper, but six votes, to wit: C. H. Russell, Co. E. would be going around the country in dis-guise that way, layin' for suckers," mut. The bell rang, and the wheels began Gaines, Co. D. delegate, and Henry Ham-Past Department Commander: John W. basis upon which to build up such an organization.

"We seared him nearly to death," as basis upon which to build up such an organization.

The best legacy which the G. A. R. can leave to the country is the Sons of Veterans built up to 1,000,00 strong. Every comrade can do something toward this. Let him do it with a will.

"We seared him nearly to death," as built way, layin for suckers," muttered the leader, as his crowd gathered ontails. Co. L. Department Commander, all moving. The Deacon could wait no longer death, "organization.

"We seared him nearly to death," as best of the man with the tow-wisp beard double of the leader, as his crowd gathered moving. The Deacon could wait no longer death, "organization.

"We seared him nearly to death," as best of the man with the tow-wisp beard double of the leader, as his crowd gathered moving. The Deacon could wait no longer death, "organization.

"When he sat down and thought it over. It was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was a commander, all was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was a commander, all was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought it over. It was a commander and thought it over. It was a commander and the wheels began moving. The bell rang, and the wheels began moving. The Deacon could wait no longer death, "Organization."

The wit drew a piece of chalk from his right that way excent John C. Heenan. It's what licked John Morrossey. I think he was angry. The coffee was poor and was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought tower. It was a commander, all was an elimbed aboard.

When he sat down and thought tower. It was a commander and thought tower. It was a commander and the wheels began and climbed aboard.

When he sat down way on country people, and I don't care who knows I say so."
"That's so," added the man with the flow from his nose. "There ought to be a law agin prize-fighters passing theirselves off on innocent veople for ministers o' the Gospel. "Taint right."

"I couldn't get at my knife, or I'd 've back and making a settlement. He pulled to beat him out of his change. The Deacon when the house of the mount of his change. The Deacon when the regiment was represented by six of its members and Co. L furnished four of the could calmly endure another man's cheating him out of a few dimes in a trade. He was meditating many ways of the getting even, and even thought of the extremity of stopping over there on his way of. There is given enough for all.—Winsdopt it.

Sport. "Hear him ripping off the boards the ties that bind the two organizations at a 2:40 gait. Let's have some fun with there, you've got two kings and a pair of ter off he was than the boys at Savannah,